P.C.

First Appeal No. 47 of 2004 filed by the State of Goa has been settled before the Lok Adalat on 19.7.2003. This is an application seeking leave to withdraw the amount, payable to the claimant as per the said Decree in First Appeal. The applicant had furnished a chart of calculations, claiming that they would be entitled to receive additional amount of Rs.36,958-24 i.e. Rs. 1,85,746-24 minus Rs.1,48,788-00.

This calculation was disputed by the Special Land Acquisition Officer, who had submitted a statement of calculations through the learned Government Advocate on the last date. As per the said calculations, an additional amount payable to the claimant comes to Rs.29,299/-.

2. The learned Advocate for the applicant concedes to the calculations submitted by the Land Acquisition Officer and agrees that the additional amount payable to the claimant is only Rs.29,299/- and the Civil Application is allowed accordingly. The balance amount could be withdrawn by the State Government.
